No Rotary meeting 7/2 for 4th of July week and holiday.

Sorry folks again for my tardiness on the bulletin. This time the 'puter was fine. The author was not. I'm on some new meds, and they have been playing havoc with my head these last few days, coupled with the fact that I'm going with a new payroll company, and had to get caught up with my 941's to send over. We're at a quarter break, and I have been somewhat behind. I know Rotary's motto is "Service above self," but if I mess with the IRS, they'll "service" me, believe me! Also, if you get a few cat hairs in this bulletin, it's because I have the hardware store cat from Grates hardware crawling all over me right now. She has been out all night and I absconded with her until Tommy opens up this morning at 8.

The meeting started at 12:15 sharp (Remember what I said about that last week?) Presiding was Nancy. I, yours truly, led us in the Pledge of Allegiance, facing the wrong way for the first half of it. (Thanks John). Jennifer Gale was our pianist and the invocation was led by pastor, Scott Davis.

Lunch was delicious, and consisted of little cvvvvvvvvvvvvv (Sorry about that, that was the cat stepping on the keyboard) Beefies, mixed veggies, potatoes, coleslaw and bread. We had ice cream with chocolate sauce for dessert.

Our guests were Antoinette Lloyd Evens, Joe Zuccaro, Mark's son, Mike O'Connor, Regina Kerner, Shadrick Wilson, his mother Jean Wilson and Ben Bouwman.

F'lars (Remember James Thurber and his prof at Ohio State.) were sold by Neil Dempsey and they were sold as follows: Al (Boom Boom) Zuccaro for his grandson, Joe (boom boom) Zuccaro. Keith Lesperance bought a f'lar for Dana Casson. I bought a f'lar for Nancy, Dana bought a f'lar for Bill Patterson, and Dick Pierson bought one for Val Miller. (F'lars f'lars everywhere a f'lar!)

Our songbird for the day was Jim Hazelwood, and we sang "All Hail to Rotary," and "Viva La Rotary."

Carl Becker announced his son is getting married soon, which of course is joyous, but is leaving for Afghanistan soon after, and will be serving in a forward area. So say prayers for their safe return, and a happy, long blessed marriage.

Val Miller is reiterating the boat outing, "The Summer of Love" event, coming up Tuesday, July 14. So get out your tie-dye, beads, sandals, bell bottom jeans and your Janis Joplin 8 tracks and be there or be square! (So there!)

Recognition, Victims, Victimization, and the fines there of: Arthur Mullen got popped for five clams because the wings lost and he shaved. Julie Huttenlocher was lightened up by two clams because of a photo. Chuck O'Grady was popped two clams as well because of a photo of him holding a gavel. (Ideations of being a judge? Not a bad second career. Don can advise on that if need be.) Mark Zuccaro got popped for announcing his birthday late, and was fined a whopping 45 clams! The old man (Boom Boom) paid his fine (Hey, that's what 'rents are all about! Bailing out their progeny!). Mark also got a bodacious B'day card from Boom Boom's Rotary club in Florida (More like a proclamation and signed into law.) Dang! It was a small magazine! And most missed Rotarian was Bob (Take me out to the ball game!) Selwa.

Our program was CWS Crop, and our speaker was intro'd by Phil Groh. Our speaker, Antoinette Lloyd Evens spoke on the ongoing service that CWS Crop provides. There was a brief video showing various Crop walks, and the folks in need of the funds raised. CWS Crop fight domestic violence, hunger, poverty, and other needs. CWS Crop is also involved with providing potable water to those areas that are in need of it. 25% of all funds generated stay in the local community where it was raised, and 75% goes nationally and internationally. CWS Crop is still assisting victims of the attacks on the World Trade Center in 2001, and Victims of hurricane Katrina in 2005. A most interesting program! Thank YOU! Antoinette!

The pot - $50 clams, to Frank Bernabei
