Marking 60 years of the Mount Clemens Rotary's relationship with Zion Church. The first 30 years the club bounced around, until 1949. Several testimonials were made by Zion women. They talked about the multi-generational relationships. Applause was given to the Rotary committee.

Warren Rotary Club announcement: Two projects are being done in Belize. A container is being shipped in January. The project helps with medical care. Rotary to pay $15,000 for shipping. A grant has been approved for $12,500 but the rest is needed, $400,000. Medical equipment has been donated.
